

Anand and Anand launches 'Digital Group' vertical focusing on AI, data protection

Feb 20, 2023

Anand and Anand launches a new vertical 'Digital Group' led by Dr. Ajai Garg (a former director at the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology), which would focus on Artificial Intelligence (AI), Data Protection, Gaming,

Drones, Blockchain/NFT and related issues emanating out of exponential technological changes across industries and piqued interest in everything 'Digital' in India; Through the launch of this vertical, Anand and Anand intends to be a leader in the Digital space and this step lays the foundation for how the firm seeks to evolve in the future; Dr. Ajai Garg described his involvement with Anand and Anand as "After working for 21 years on the other side and seeing India's digital transformation and challenges thereof, I feel excited to work with an intellectual driven law group of Anand and Anand."; In this regard, Mr. Safir Anand, a Senior Partner at the Firm, inter alia apprises that, with the onset of a digital revolution that promises no end, the firm has expanded its existing practice in IT and ITeS to include the entire gambit of digital world from NFT to AI to Gaming to issues of business valuation, capital raising and competition law